“Here I am! I stand at the door and knock.
If anyone hears my voice and opens the door,
I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.”
—Revelation 3:20

This Week in the News—

BRR!—It is very cold lately, so please send hats, gloves and other warm clothing to school for your child. Students will be required to go outside unless a note is sent stating otherwise. We ask you to trust the discretion of the faculty in making cold weather decisions.

END OF SEMESTER—Next week Friday, January 15th, marks the end of our first semester and second quarter. Report cards will be coming home on Wednesday, January 20th.

Miss Biedenbender’s Room—

Spelling—We will be on Lesson 16 words this week.

Science—We will be finishing up our study of the human body. Next quarter we will begin social studies. Our first unit will be Native Americans.

Book Report—The 3rd and 4th graders have a book report coming up. Due to lack of reminders, the due date has been changed to January 20th. Please contact Miss B. with any questions.

Mr. Scherschel’s Room—

Hymn—This week’s hymn is 304, Jesus Sinners Does Receive. Students must choose 3 stanzas to learn. This will be due on Wednesday, January 20th. Parents, please work on these hymns with your child!

Book Report—Our next book report is due on Thursday, January 28th. Look over that book list, go to the library and give yourself plenty of time to read your book and work on your project.

Missing Work—Any work that was not handed in before Christmas has been marked with a zero grade. Students have been made aware of the missing work. This will be reflected on report cards when they are sent home.

New Semester—In the new semester, starting January 20th, we will be switching from social studies to science and from health to Ohio History.
