February 26, 2010

"Here I am! I stand at the door and knock.
If anyone hears my voice and opens the door,
I will come in and eat with him, and he with me."
—Revelation 3:20

This Week in the News—

LUNCHES—Please get into the habit of sending lunch to school in the morning with your child. Packing lunches saves money and is healthier than fast food and prepackaged meals.

EDCHOICE—The application window for next year is now open until April 16th. Please turn in your renewal form and encourage others to use the EdChoice program!

MIDQUARTER—Midquarter reports will not be sent home this week. Use Powerschool to check your child's grades online. See us if you need help logging in.

REST UP—Please make sure your children get plenty of sleep so they are ready to learn every day! Did you know that the National Sleep Foundation's recommendation is 9-11 hours a day?

Miss Biedenbender's Room—

Spelling—We will be on Lesson 23 words this week.

Hymn—The week's hymn is 116 In the Hour of Trial. 1st and 2nd grade will have stanza 1; 3rd and 4th, stanzas 1 and 4.

Black History Month—Great work on the African American Athlete projects! Come check them out on video tape at the open house on March 8th and 9th.

Pencils and Erasers—Please check with your student to see if he/she is in need of more pencils or erasers. Many of us could use more of these important tools.

4th Grade Reading—Fourth grade reading has begun a new novel, The Perilous Road, a Civil War story, by William Steele. Pick up a copy and read with us!

Book Report—2nd-4th grades have a book report dues March 23rd. Let Miss B. know if you need another packet of book report information.

Mr. Scherschel's Room—

Hymn—This week's hymn is 98, Jesus, I Will Ponder Now. Students must choose 3 stanzas to learn. Parents, please work on these hymns with your child!

Toothpick Bridges—Our bridges will be tested for strength this next week.

Book Report—Our next book report is due on Thursday, March 25th.

Reading—We are coming close to the end of our novel, Out of the Dust by Karen Hesse. All students have a folder with questions to be done throughout each chapter. When was the last time you read with your child? Here is your chance!
